

may 29-30, 2025

The European Green Week is an annual event organized by the European Commission to highlight and discuss environmental issues and promote sustainable initiatives.

The Green Week 2025 – Environmental Sustainability 4.0, emerges as a forum where innovative and necessary responses, discussing technologies such as computer science and artificial intelligence (Ai) to address environmental challenges. In the Green Week 2025, PV, it will take place the 5th Workshop – Towards Zero Pollution, organized by the Environment Department in collaboration with the Informatics Department. The event will take place at the School of Technology and Management of the Polytechnic of Viseu (ESTGV-PV).

see more